

ABSTRACT

Sadid Farhan. 2023. Identification of Street Clown Beggar Activities in Kahuripan Village, Tawang District, Tasikmalaya City. Department of Geography Education Teaching and Education Faculty Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya City.

This research is motivated by the social conditions of Tasikmalaya City which are still lagging behind other cities and regencies in West Java, Tasikmalaya City is still ranked first in the poverty rate and this is a serious problem caused by many factors, one of which is the social condition of the community which still has many problems which is still found in Tasikmalaya City and focuses on the phenomenon of street clown beggars which are often found in Tasikmalaya City especially Kahuripan Village Tawang sub-district. This study tries to dissect various facts about facts in the field related to activities and the factors behind beggars becoming beggars in the City of Tasikmalaya, this study was compiled using descriptive methods with a qualitative approach, data collection techniques in this study there is observation, interviews, literature studies and documentation studies. The subjects and objects in this study include street clown beggars, the Tasikmalaya City government, and the surrounding community which are the focus of the street clown beggars' operations. While the results of this study describe the various activities of street clown beggars before leaving, when carrying out begging activities, and after working as street clown beggars. Besides that the three main factors that cause them to choose to become street clown beggars include predisposing, supporting, and motivating factors.

Keywords: Activity, Factors, Beggars.