

ABSTRACT

EVA NURAENI. 2020. PROGRAM FOR LEATHER BEAUTY TRAINING TO IMPROVE ENTERPRISE INDEPENDENCE (Case Study of Graduates at the Yuwita Training and Training Institute, Tasikmalaya City). Department of Public Education, Faculty of Teacher Training and Education, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.

The skin beauty training program aims to empower people who are less empowered, want to have expertise, and be competent in certain fields. Yuwita Course and Training Institute can increase the entrepreneurial independence of the community. The purpose of this study was to determine the skin beauty training program at the Yuwita Training and Training Institute, Tasikmalaya City. In increasing entrepreneurial independence, Yuwita Course and Training Institute graduates. The method used in this research is descriptive qualitative method. With the technique of observation, documentation, and interviews. Analysis of research studies. Implementation of skin beauty training programs in increasing entrepreneurial independence for graduates of the Yuwita Training and Training Institute in improving life skills. The conclusion of the program research, skin beauty training is able to carry out activities in accordance with the objectives of the Yuwita course and training institute and the Indonesian National Graduate Competency Standards. Can provide knowledge, skills, relationships and experiences.

Keywords: Training, Beauty, Improvement, Independence, Entrepreneur.