

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Alhamdulillah rabbi'l' alamin. All good praises belong to Allah SWT, the Almighty who guides and gives the strength to finish this research thesis entitled “Investigating Students’ Silence during Synchronous Virtual Classroom: a Case Study” as the final work to fulfill the requirements for sarjana pendidikan degree at English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University. The researcher realized that the completion of this research thesis could not be separated from the support of many people. Therefore, on this occasion, the researcher intended to express her gratitude and appreciation to all of them.

1. The honorable Head of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.
2. The honorable Yuyus Saputra, M.Pd., as the first supervisor who has given corrections, advice, and guidance in finishing this research thesis.
3. The honorable Fera Sulastri, M.Pd., as the second supervisor who has given suggestion and guidance in writing this research thesis.
4. All lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.
5. The researcher’s deepest appreciation goes to her beloved parents who have supported her spiritually, morally, and financially and for the love, prayers, caring and sacrifices for educating and preparing the researcher for the future.
6. The gratitude also goes to her beloved brother and his wife for every support, valuable prayer, suggestion and never stop asking about the completion of my study.
7. Special thanks go to the all of the researcher’s best friends: Ai Delis who always being a good listener for every problem the researcher faced, especially when the researcher had the problem in writing this thesis, Helga Rifa Faujiah always shares knowledge with the researcher, and always encourages when the researcher is desperate, and the last Gina

Amelia Mustika who has always been the researcher's partner in every project of assignment since studied at this university.

Finally, the researcher would like to thank everybody who has been important to the successful realization of this undergraduate thesis that cannot be mentioned one by one. May Allah swt. bless you, for your kindness.