“Notification of Abstract Acceptance for Presentation in the 6th Nelta Conference”

On behalf of the 6th NELTAL Conference Organizing Committee, I am delighted to inform you that your abstract entitled:

‘My Teacher is Like a Mirror’ as the Students’ Perspectives on Their Non-Native English Teacher

is accepted for paper presentation in the 6th National English Language Teachers and Lecturers (Nelta) Conference to be held at State University of Malang, East Java, Indonesia on Saturday, March 29, 2014, due to its relevance to this year’s theme:

Success Stories in English Language Teaching (or Learning)

I would like to congratulate you on your success in the abstract submission. For successful presentation, kindly read some important information attached to this notification. Thank you very much.

Looking forward to meeting you in the conference at State University of Malang.

Best regards,

Prof. Bambang Yudi Cahyono, Ph.D.
Chair of the Organizing Committee

Presentation

Presenters have 30 minutes for paper presentation (including 10-minute Question & Answer session).

In each presentation room, there is an LCD projector. Presenters are advised to use their own laptops for more convenient presentation. In case a presenter does not wish to bring his/her own laptop, please contact me so that a laptop will be made available by the committee.

Presenters are advised to prepare clear and interesting power-point slides with minimum font size 28. The use of fancy but disturbing background should be avoided. Presenters are not allowed to grant request for a copy of soft-file in the presentation room.

Handouts are optional (not a must). Presenters who wish to prepare handouts should use their own budget for photocopying (there is no reimbursement). There will be about 15 to 30 participants in a parallel room.

A presenter should take turn to be a moderator for another presenter in the same parallel session. The moderator is kindly requested to open the presentation session for the presenter.

The moderator should inform the participants that the presentation lasts for 30 minutes including time for question and answer session. In addition, he or she should remind the presenter when it is about the time to end the presentation.
