

ABSTRACT

This thesis with the title “GERAKAN SOSIAL FRONT PEMBELA ISLAM (Studi Analisis Gerakan Penegakkan Amar Maruf Nahi Munkar di Kecamatan Ciamis periode 2016-2020)”.. A social movement is a social movement that creates an interaction between conflict and resistance. Social movement is a tool to encourage or inhibit a social change. To realize an idea, humans must be organized and organized so that in an effort to realize the idea more effectively.

As an organization that breathes Islam, FPI has aspirations to uphold Amar maruf nahi munkar. The concept of Amar maruf nahi munkar will affect FPI's maneuvers and views on issues and problems around them. And by knowing the movement in FPI, we will be more open in looking at the movements or attitudes carried out by FPI towards social issues and problems.

The theory used in this research proposal is social movement, and uses descriptive qualitative research methods with a case study approach. The data sources of this research are primary data and secondary data. Data collection technique in this research is interview. The data validity technique used in this study is source triangulation. And this research will be carried out in Ciamis District.

The results of this study are, FPI Ciamis emerged as the initial reality of the concerns of some Muslims about the current moral condition, and the bad impact of declining moral quality caused by rampant immoral acts. so that FPI Ciamis carried out a movement to enforce amaruf nahi munkar to prevent moral decline which was feared to damage the nation's generation as well. Various kinds of dynamics in the work of the Ciamis FPI in enforcing the rules of law and order during the 2016-2020 period have not dampened the spirit of the Ciamis FPI struggle in upholding the basic principles of Islam. The dynamics of the early establishment, movement, and opposition have been discussed in this paper. The struggle of the FPI Ciamis in enforcing the rules of law and order must stop at the end of 2020 due to formal legal resistance in the form of revocation of permits carried out by the state.

Keywords: Movement, FPI, Islam.