

ABSTRACT

PRASETYO. 2021. Student Motivation in Participating in Volleyball Extracurricular at SMA Ciledug Al Musaddadiyah Garut During the Covid-19 Pandemic, Department of Physical Education. Faculty of Teacher Training and Education. Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.

The problem raised in this research is how big the level of student motivation in participating in extracurricular volleyball at SMA Ciledug Al Musaddadiyah Garut during the Covid-19 Pandemic. This study aims to determine the motivation of students in participating in volleyball extracurricular activities during the covid 19 pandemic. The method in this study used a descriptive method. The research method used is quantitative research, taking a sample of 22 students of SMA Ciledug Al Musaddadiyah who take part in extracurricular volleyball. Taken using a total sampling technique, data collection techniques using motivation questionnaires and distributed through questionnaires. The results showed that the motivation of students in participating in volleyball extracurricular activities during the covid-19 pandemic was included in the Enough category with a percentage of 41% totaling 9 people.

Keywords: Volleyball, Extracurricular, Covid Pandemic Period, Motivation, Students.