Article Title: Indigenous Vegetables Consumed as lalapan by Sundanese Ethnic Group in West Java, Indonesia:
Potential, Traditions, Local Knowledge, and its Future
Corresponding Author: Mrs Diana Hernawati

Dear Mrs Hernawati,

Your submission entitled "Indigenous Vegetables Consumed as lalapan by Sundanese Ethnic Group in West Java, Indonesia: Potential, Traditions, Local Knowledge, and its Future" has been received by South African Journal of Botany. However, before we can proceed with the review process we ask you to address the following:

Your article would be suitable for the "Underutilised Fruits and Vegetables Special Issue". If you wish for it to be in this Special Issue then please re-submit it under the category "UFV: SI" instead of a Regular article.

Please log onto Elsevier Editorial System as an Author:

<https://www.editorialmanager.com/sajb/>.

1. Go to the menu item "Submissions/Revisions Sent Back to Author".
2. Click "Edit Submission/Revision".
3. Click on the relevant submission step on the left-hand menu.
4. Provide or modify the item/information as requested.
5. Go to "Attach Files" and "Build PDF for my Approval".
6. View and Approve your new PDF file including the changed item(s), or if needed, Edit again.

Thank you for submitting your work to the journal, and if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Johannes van Staden
South African Journal of Botany

Editor and Reviewer comments:

Reviewer #1: Comments to the Author

A brief explanation of each section of the report is given below;

Title: It is adequate for the content, informative, concise, and clear.

Abstract: It is comprehensive by itself. All the important and essential information of the article is included.

Structure and length: The overall structure of the article well organized and well balanced. The article is written with the minimum length necessary for all relevant information.

Logic: The article written clearly and correctly. It is logically consistent. Figures and tables: They essential and clearly presented. English: English used in the article should be improved. There are some typographic and grammatical errors. Scientific quality rating: The article is novel and original. The article contains material that is new or adds significantly to knowledge already published. Importance and impact: The presented results are of significant importance and impact to advancement in the relevant field of research. References: Appropriate and adequate references to related works covered sufficiently in the list. Incorporate some latest references. The article should become acceptable after minor revisions of English / grammatical mistakes / improvement of figures quality.

Reviewer #2: 1.Introduction

Suggestion that the Author must Specify the Indigenous crops in question as well as their potential health benefits and their origin

2.Line 75 : Remove Africa as a country. Suggestion : "Some African countries such as Kenya...."

3.Line 195 : The Scientific names of the crops must be in Italics.

Table 1 : Consider writing the title columns in full not Abbreviations/ alphabets only because alphabets are also used within the table. The Alphabets in both title column and within the table make the table look cumbersome and confusing.

Methods: Can you please Elaborate further on the methods applied for data collection (The actual methods ) not only the techniques and statistical methods

*****

MethodsX (optional)

We invite you to submit a method article alongside your research article. This is an opportunity to get full credit for the time and money spent on developing research methods, and to increase the visibility and impact of your work. If your research article is accepted, we will contact you with instructions on the submission process for your method article to MethodsX. On receipt at MethodsX it will be editorially reviewed and, upon acceptance, published as a separate method article. Your articles will be linked on ScienceDirect.

Please prepare your paper using the MethodsX Guide for Authors: <https://www.elsevier.com/journals/methodsx/2215-0161/guide-for-authors> (and template available here: <https://www.elsevier.com/MethodsX-template>) Open access fees apply.

Data in Brief (optional):

We invite you to convert your supplementary data (or a part of it) into an additional journal publication in Data in Brief, a multi-disciplinary open access journal. Data in Brief articles are a fantastic way to describe supplementary data and associated metadata, or full raw datasets deposited in an external repository, which are otherwise unnoticed. A Data in Brief article (which will be reviewed, formatted, indexed, and given a DOI) will make your data easier to find, reproduce, and cite.

You can submit to Data in Brief when you upload your revised manuscript. To do so, complete the template and follow the co-submission instructions found here: www.elsevier.com/dib-template. If your manuscript is accepted, your Data in Brief submission will automatically be transferred to Data in Brief for editorial review and publication.

Please note: an open access Article Publication Charge (APC) is payable by the author or research funder to cover the costs associated with publication in Data in Brief and ensure your data article is immediately and permanently free to access by all. For the current APC see: www.elsevier.com/journals/data-in-brief/2352-3409/open-access-journal

Please contact the Data in Brief editorial office at dib-me@elsevier.com or visit the Data in Brief homepage (www.journals.elsevier.com/data-in-brief/) if you have questions or need further information.

The article should become acceptable after major revisions of English, grammatical mistakes, improvement of figures quality and addition of references.

Reviewer #2: There is lot of improvement and the paper is good.

Here are few recommendations

1. On the first highlight please check repetition of words (Indige Indigenous)
2. Line 103 : Please fix the sentence. It appears as if all the countries that comes after kenya are also African countries. Please work around proper sentence construction.

Line 203: You have indicated Table 1 as Tab 1.

Line 329: You have indicated Table 2 as Table 2.

Please choose one way of Naming them and Ensure Consistency .

Thank you

MethodsX (optional)

We invite you to submit a method article alongside your research article. This is an opportunity to get full credit for the time and money spent on developing research methods, and to increase the visibility and impact of your work. If your research article is accepted, we will contact you with instructions on the submission process for your method article to MethodsX. On receipt at MethodsX it will be editorially reviewed and, upon acceptance, published as a separate method article. Your articles will be linked on ScienceDirect.

Please prepare your paper using the MethodsX Guide for Authors: <https://www.elsevier.com/journals/methodsx/2215-0161/guide-for-authors> (and template available here: <https://www.elsevier.com/MethodsX-template>) Open access fees apply.

Data in Brief (optional):

We invite you to convert your supplementary data (or a part of it) into an additional journal publication in Data in Brief, a multi-disciplinary open access journal. Data in Brief articles are a fantastic way to describe supplementary data and associated metadata, or full raw datasets deposited in an external repository, which are otherwise unnoticed. A Data in Brief article (which will be reviewed, formatted, indexed, and given a DOI) will make your data easier to find, reproduce, and cite.

You can submit to Data in Brief when you upload your revised manuscript. To do so, complete the template and follow the co-submission instructions found here: www.elsevier.com/dib-template. If your manuscript is accepted, your Data in Brief submission will automatically be transferred to Data in Brief for editorial review and publication.

Please note: an open access Article Publication Charge (APC) is payable by the author or research funder to cover the costs associated with publication in Data in Brief and ensure your data article is immediately and permanently free to access by all. For the current APC see: www.elsevier.com/journals/data-in-brief/2352-3409/open-access-journal

Please contact the Data in Brief editorial office at dib-me@elsevier.com or visit the Data in Brief homepage (www.journals.elsevier.com/data-in-brief/) if you have questions or need further information.

Editor and Reviewer comments:

Reviewer #1: The overall concept of the revised research article is good. Following are general comments;

Abstract: Well written and precise.

Introduction is good and explanatory.

Material and Methods is satisfactory and good.

Discuss Results in quantitative form are very good.

Discussion developed somewhat beyond the results and up to some extent comparison with other studies is satisfactory.

Conclusion: Precise and specific.

Recommended for publication in this journal.

Reviewer #2: The writer paid attention to majority of details suggested on the first revision. There are a few corrections that still needs to applied.

1. Please fix the issue of Gramma in majority of the sentences.
- 2.Line 113 Was it supposed to be Genius or Genus?? (Please check)
- 3.Under the methods Line 117 to 134 : The methods are written in the form of literature. It is not written as set of procedures conducted.
4. Methods : The methods are supposed to be written in a third person narrative as such the use of "IS" is prohibited.
5. Line 125 "This study has good transferability test..." - This statement sound a bit biased when used in methods because in this case conclusions and have not yet been drawn.

6. Line 186 " Their occupation as a farmer@ -Please rephrase.

Dear Hernawati,

Your submitted manuscript is currently under review. The peer review process can take a while, so we are trying out a new service that allows you to track the peer review status of your submission in more detail. You can access the service here:

<https://track.authorhub.elsevier.com?uuid=87960eef-9ade-4a87-ae1a-6552a97ed8a3>

This page will remain active until the peer review process for your submission is completed. You can visit the page whenever you like to check the progress of your submission. The page does not require a login, so you can also share the link with your co-authors.

We hope you find this service useful.

Kind regards,
Journal Office of South African Journal of Botany

Indigenous Vegetables Consumed as lalapan by Sundanese Ethnic Group in West Java, Indonesia: Potential, Traditions, Local Knowledge, and its Future

Dear Mrs Hernawati,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to South African Journal of Botany.

I have completed my evaluation of your manuscript. The reviewers recommend reconsideration of your manuscript following minor revision and modification. I invite you to resubmit your manuscript after addressing the comments below. Please resubmit your revised manuscript by Jul 09, 2022.

When revising your manuscript, please consider all issues mentioned in the reviewers' comments carefully: please outline every change made in response to their comments, highlight all changes you make in the revised manuscript and provide suitable rebuttals for any comments not addressed. Please note that your revised submission may need to be re-reviewed.

To submit your revised manuscript, please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/sajb/>, and navigate to the "Submissions Needing Revision" folder under the Author Main Menu.

South African Journal of Botany values your contribution and I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript.

Kind regards,

Ashwell Ndhlala
Managing Guest Editor
South African Journal of Botany

Editor and Reviewer comments:

Reviewer #1: A brief explanation of each section of the report is given below;

Title: It is adequate for the content, informative, concise, and clear.

Abstract: It is comprehensive by itself. All the important and essential information of the article is included. Structure and length: The overall structure of the article well organized and well balanced. The article is written with the minimum length necessary for all relevant information.

Logic: The article written clearly and correctly. It is logically consistent. Figures and tables: They essential and clearly presented. English: English used in the article should be improved. There are some typographic and grammatical errors. Scientific quality rating: The article is novel and original. The article contains material that is new or adds significantly to knowledge already published. Importance and impact: The presented results are of significant importance and impact to advancement in the relevant field of research. References: Appropriate and adequate references to related works covered sufficiently in the list. Incorporate some latest references. The article should become acceptable after minor revisions of English / grammatical mistakes.

Reviewer #2: The author paid attention to the corrections suggested .

Please ensure consistency on column headings in the tables ie: if you opt for the use of abbreviations , stick to such, if you write them in full stick to that. I recommend writing in full to avoid confusion.

MethodsX (optional)

We invite you to submit a method article alongside your research article. This is an opportunity to get full credit for the time and money spent on developing research methods, and to increase the visibility and impact of your work. If your research article is accepted, we will contact you with instructions on the submission process for your method article to MethodsX. On receipt at MethodsX it will be editorially reviewed and, upon acceptance, published as a separate method article. Your articles will be linked on ScienceDirect.

Please prepare your paper using the MethodsX Guide for Authors: <https://www.elsevier.com/journals/methodsx/2215-0161/guide-for-authors> (and template available here: <https://www.elsevier.com/MethodsX-template>) Open access fees apply.

Data in Brief (optional):

We invite you to convert your supplementary data (or a part of it) into an additional journal publication in Data in Brief, a multi-disciplinary open access journal. Data in Brief articles are a fantastic way to describe supplementary data and associated metadata, or full raw datasets deposited in an external repository, which are otherwise unnoticed. A Data in Brief article (which will be reviewed, formatted, indexed, and given a DOI) will make your data easier to find, reproduce, and cite.

You can submit to Data in Brief when you upload your revised manuscript. To do so, complete the template and follow the co-submission instructions found here: www.elsevier.com/dib-template. If your manuscript is accepted, your Data in Brief submission will automatically be transferred to Data in Brief for editorial review and publication.

Please note: an open access Article Publication Charge (APC) is payable by the author or research funder to cover the costs associated with publication in Data in Brief and ensure your data article is immediately and permanently free to access by all. For the current APC see: www.elsevier.com/journals/data-in-brief/2352-3409/open-access-journal

Please contact the Data in Brief editorial office at dib-me@elsevier.com or visit the Data in Brief homepage (www.journals.elsevier.com/data-in-brief/) if you have questions or need further information.
